J. G. FORTY, Sup't.

Gather your garden hose.
Girls, 1890, is passing. Go for 'em.
Cider is only a dollar a barrel.
This is dog cheap when water is so scarce.

Pumpkin pie and weddings may now be looked for—both good if you get the right material.
The house fly isn't well now-a-days. He feels very much as the Republicans will the last of next week.

Mr. Nazarine Daigle has added a half-story to the old Barber house on River street, which he purchased a short time ago. It makes the old domicile look quite "toney."

The hills were white with snow Sunday morning. Tuesday we had considerable rain, but, like Oliver Twist, we want more.

The black list will come. Stand from under. Parties who owe us for five or six years, to whom we have sent bills should see to them at once. We must have our pay now. They can stop and get mad or get mad and stop, just as they please.

Mr. Chas. M. Perry is doing good work on the highways and byways. Folks on River st. thank him.

We want cider and wood on subscription to the Age. If the Republicans are going to whip us we want to keep warm this winter. We know you can't live without the Age, and this is an easy way to pay for it.

Somebody has discovered that the age of a hog is fifteen years. If this is so, we will get rid of some human hogs after awhile who steal the reading of this paper every week—and we take courage.

Dr. C. D. Hinman will open rooms in Fairbanks Block for the practice of Dentistry, the last of this week.

Our Republican friends have laid in for a stock of "war material" to be used Tuesday evening, providing the first news from the elections is favorable. Be careful boys, not too fast—wait until we hear from "Nosefield," anyway.

James Blanchard, of Pomfret, will sell his goods, chattels and effects at auction, to-morrow (Thursday). He is soon to move to Florida with his family.

Our Republican friends will need considerable washing after this campaign is over, and folks say there is no better soap than Williams' steam pressed machine soap to cut old dirt. The soap is manufactured in Rutland, and for sale here by L. W. Wilson. For quickly and effectually removing all dirt, paint, oils, pitch, grease, printer's ink, smoke, smut, coal tar, etc., it has no superior. Try a cake and you will be pleased with it. Mr. Williams' laundry soap, for sale as above, is also considered a good article. Mr. M. P. Ryan is traveling salesman, and he sells lots of it.

The political outlook is good. Samuel J. has taken hold of the canvass in New York, and that State is sure for Hancock.

A gang of men and an engine from the Northern N. H. R. R., have been engaged for some time filling up the trestles on the Woodstock R. R. and all will be filled this fall except the "Champion."

Lots of new advertisements in the Age this week. Read and profit by them.

Mrs. Johnson & Tewksbury have a new advertisement in today's Age. They have lots of "woman fixings," latest from market, which they are selling dirt cheap.

ELECTION OF PRESIDENT.—The notice for the voters of the town to assemble at the Town Hall on Tuesday next, at 10 o'clock, and from that time until sundown, to put in their votes for Presidential Electors, is put up in the post-office, but the paper is so small, and the writing so fine, and ink so pale, that not one person in forty will see it. It ought to have been printed or written with a large caption, and put up in a conspicuous manner. It is now like Nero's laws, which were written so fine and put up so high that no one could read them.

Next Tuesday! Hancock and the Union!

The Ball at the Town Hall in Pomfret Centre, on the evening of the 22d inst, went off in fine style. We understand a carriage load of eleven of our "fashionable upper crusts" graced the festivities, and gave clat to the brilliant ball room. Two of them were beautiful blondes and a third a heart-smashing brunette, who made dreadful havoc with the affections of the sensitive young gentlemen of that lofty city. The dancing was said to be superb. Scotch reels, the fashionable double semi-quavers and waltzes were very magnificently performed, and one gentleman in giving the "Highland Fling" excited the plaudits of the assembled crowd, and at one time his nimble heels went so high as to endanger the chandelier, and it was feared he never would come down, but he finally descended safely, to the great joy of his friends. It is said to have been the most remarkable performance ever seen, excepting on the boards of Drury Lane Theatre in London, when Taglione and Fanny Elssler were in their glory.

Our astute neighbor of the Standard had the following morsel last week: "The prisoners in Woodstock jail have hung a Hancock and English flag to the breeze." The facts of the case are: the boys stuck out a Garfield and Arthur flag first, and then some wicked republican on the outside of the institution (he ought to be in the inside) hired the boys to put this on the other side of the flag, "139 Hancock & English." What 139 stands for is a puzzle to us, unless it means the "solid South," and if this is so, the boys are about as well informed as the brother on the outside.

Queer, isn't it, when a man has a lot of rubbish to dispose of, he always finds a place in the highway that needs filling up.

Considerable excitement prevails in Bridgewater. It is claimed that Martin Cummings, whose death from a fall we mentioned last week, was poisoned, and our doctors have gone up there today to examine the case.

Kate Thayer's Grand Concert Company and Cur's original Spanish Students will entertain our citizens at the Town Hall here Monday eve, of next week. The Boston Journal says: "The Kate Thayer Grand Concert Company gave a very pleasing entertainment at Music Hall last evening, deepening very greatly the good impressions created by the same artists here a fortnight since. Miss Thayer again gave very gratifying evidence of her abilities as a vocalist, singing first, 'Arditi's waltz,' 'L'Ardita,' then the 'Postillion' by Abt by way of an encore piece. Her singing was marked by nicety of expression and feeling as well as by facility of execution."

Springfield.
—Last Sunday there came snow enough to whiten the New Hampshire hills and make cold the fingers of various chestnut thieves.

—The Springfield Hosiery Co. are placing the machinery in their mill and expect to start it soon.

—A calf with two heads was shown upon the street last Wednesday by Mr. Horace H. Albee.

—How thick the Honorables are this year! Country politicians have girded it.

—Brink & Lawrence have lost one of the best horses in their stables by the epizootic.

—An educational meeting is to be held Friday and Saturday of this week by the State Sup't of Education, Edward Conant, assisted by other prominent educators. The citizens of this place will entertain all who come. Return checks will be given to those who come over the C. V. R. R.

—Senator Field came here last Saturday to spend the Sabbath.

—Wonder if our "wild colt" is very frisky?

—Some wicked editors not being blessed with a large amount of veneration are trying to abuse "Brownie" forgetting that he is an "Executive Clerk."

—Some 300 persons attended the Republican rally at Charlestown, N. H., from this place, last Friday.

—Geo. A. and Fred L. Davis have gone to Gloucester, Mass.

Windsor.
The Superintendent of the Vermont State Prison had quite a visit from the legislative managers of that institution, last week Thursday. It is supposed some improvements on the buildings are expected soon.

—J. A. Wilder and R. Howard took Tuesday morning's train going south. It is hoped they will return in season to vote in Vermont though this State is not expected to cast its electoral vote for Hancock and English any more than it did for its political father, Horace Greeley, in 1872.

—The Rev. Mr. Guernsey preached at the Unitarian house Sunday.

White River Junction.
—The band from this place went to Plainfield, N. H., last Wednesday night and played for a Republican rally.

—Thursday night as the freight over the Passumpsic road was backing up to set off the train, some cars jumped the iron they ran them against and into the Central engine house, demolishing about twenty feet of the wall and one window.

—The first snow of the season came last Sunday and Monday. The hills in the distance were white.

—There are three schools in this place, two Protestants one Catholic.

Quebec.
—Tickets for Kate Thayer's Concert, at the Town Hall, Woodstock, on Monday evening next, for sale at Tinkham's. An extra train will be run over the Woodstock R. R. to accommodate those wishing to attend the concert.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE for November, the last number of the sixty-first volume, is, perhaps, the best number ever issued. The illustrations are uncommonly beautiful, and some of them by the best engravers of the country. "Saline Types" is full of humorous stories of the "Old Sals" of Long Island, with characteristic illustrations. "Pig sticking in India" is an entertaining article on a new subject. The whole number is of superior merit. The Easy Chair and the other editorial departments are well sustained and the Drawer is above the average. Published by Harper & Brothers, Franklin Square, N. Y. Price $4 a year; 35 cents a single number. For sale at White's bookstore.

The Vermont Medical Society at its annual meeting at Montpelier elected the following officers: President, J. H. Jackson, M. D.; Vice-President, O. W. Sherwin, M. D.; Woodstock; Secretary, L. C. Butler, M. D.; Essex; Treasurer, S. Putnam, M. D.; Auditor, G. C. Kemp, M. D.

Grant has become simply a selfish adventurer—a politician of unmanly methods. But he is scheming, all the same, to put himself at the head of the Government again, and remain there till he gets ready to leave.

The Hartford Times says: The financial crash that shut up our mills and brought ruin to hundreds of thousands was under Grant and a Radical Congress. The returning era of prosperity which set the idle looms in motion and the wheels of industry going was under a Democratic Congress.

The New York World says: The Western Union Telegraph Company seems to be more anxious about the sanctity of Republican despatches in 1880 than it was about the sanctity of Democratic despatches in 1876. Is this a case of moral development, or is it only the case of the wrong ox gored?

—There are mean men in this world. An Indian man stopped his paper and said in the presence of a crowd that he'd never read the sheet again, or circulate it: and the fenishish editor went the next day and printed an article speaking very highly of that man as a prominent citizen. And of course the man couldn't go back on his word and read the article, and he merely went as wild as he would if they had taken liquor away from him. Revenge is sweet.

Edger Towell of Chittenden left his boarding house Thursday night about twelve o'clock, to attend to a coal pit he was burning. Friday morning he was found dead.

The Riverside, published at Wells River, has given up the ghost, owing to lack of patronage.

The Red Mask.
You have seen persons afflicted with erysipelas? Well, it is an awful thing. It disfigures the face almost beyond recognition, is as dangerous as it is repulsive. It often causes sudden death, and is sometimes called "St. Anthony's Fire." Mr. S. B. Carpenter, of Grandville, N. Y., had it in both legs and was cured by the use of Dr. David Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy." His health is now perfect. Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy" is the very life of the blood. It cannot hurt you and is sure to help. Tell your neighbors so. Get it of your druggist, or write to the doctor at Roadout, N. Y., enclosing One Dollar for a bottle.

A PRESENT TO GEN. HANCOCK.
Col. J. B. Price, of Missisquoi, presented to General Hancock yesterday a stuffed American eagle, measuring eight feet from tip to tip of wing. The bird was found three winters ago by a farmer's boy, near Denver, Col. Its talons were buried in the back of a steer, and both were dead and frozen.

Mitchell J. Griffin, of Newmarket, N. H., for a felonious assault on Jennie E. Stott, of that town, was sentenced to five years in the State prison.
